

Estate Planning Worksheet

If you are ready to plan for whatever the future may bring, start by answering the following questions.

If you are married and become incapacitated, will your spouse always serve in the first position to make your decisions? YES or NO

How old should your minor children be before they handle money you've left them, if you're deceased? (The money can be accessed by your trustee for your children's needs until they take over at the designated age.)

If you have minor children, which individuals would you trust to take care of your minor children, if you can't care for them or are deceased? N/A

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Which individuals would you trust to handle your finances should you become disabled?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Who should oversee and manage the money you've left your children until they reach the designated age? N/A

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Your family's future may not yet be protected.
Contact our offices to put a comprehensive estate plan in place today!

If you are ready to plan for whatever the future may bring, start by answering the following questions.

Which individuals would be best to speak to your doctors and handle your major medical decisions?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Which do you prefer?
BURIED or CREMATED

Do you wish to be an organ donor?
YES or NO

Which individuals would handle your estate and pay your final bills and expenses at your death?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Is your estate (life insurance, IRA's, 401ks, real estate, bank accounts, business interests, etc.)

Less than $500,000?
More than $500,000?

Do you wish to be kept alive by artificial means if you can no longer communicate and a licensed physician deems that you are at the end stage of a disease which will take your life within a short period of time? YES or NO

Use the space below to name the people who will receive something from you when you die AND what each person will receive. Use percentages!

Do you want your health care agents to consult with the doctor before a final decision is made regarding your end of life care? YES or NO

What other questions do you have for the attorney?